

Council approves raises for mayor and councilmen

By BRENDA HEATHCOCK
The Bay St. Louis City Council approved pay increases for the mayor and city councilmen Tuesday at their regular meeting.

The raises which will take effect following the election of city officials next year, include an increase from $22,500 to $30,500 yearly for the mayor and $300 to $350 monthly for councilmen.

Councilman Gary Griffin made the motion stating that the mayor executed a budget of nearly $5 million and deserved a pay increase. The motion was seconded by Councilman Harry Farve.

In the vote, Griffin and Farve were in favor of the raises and Councilman Wilmer Seymour was opposed. Councilmen James Thriffley and Shelton Seuzeneau were not present at the meeting.

The council also opened bids at the meeting for housing rehabilitation, heating and air conditioning and pest control services for residents Pamela Jones, Catherine Steele, Lucille Bourgeois, Edward Dorsey and Clifton Wilkerson.

Ron Murray, representing the consulting firm administering the grant funds to be utilized in the rehabilitation work explained to the council that each of the residents had been advised that the work would be done only if there were enough remaining funds.

"The work will be done on the houses in order of the submission of the applications requesting the assistance," Murray said.

The council tabled the bid prices submitted until the amount of funds still available is noted.

City Clerk Edward Favre reported to the council that no bids had been received on $600,000 bonds to be used as the remainder of the funding for the first phase of the planned Farmers' Home project. The $15 million project will upgrade and install utility services throughout the city.

He requested permission from the council to advise Farmers' Home Administration that no bids had been received. Farmers' Home had agreed earlier to purchase the bonds provided no other bid was made.

The council agreed that Farmers' Home Administration be advised of the situation.

Favre also told the council that the specifications for the drainage project on Ulman Avenue had been received and requested authority to advertise for bids on the project. The council voted that the advertisements be placed.

In other business, the council voted that the Julia Perry property in the 300 block of Washington Street be declared a menace and instructed Favre to advertise for bids to clean up the property.

First woman election commissioner selected

By BRENDA HEATHCOCK
Hancock County voters elected their first woman election commissioner Tuesday night in the run-off election with more than 71 percent of District 3 voters casting their ballots for Betsy Nolan.

Defeating incumbent commissioner John V. Ladner, Nolan led in three of the five precincts. She had a total of 640 votes and Ladner had 258.

Election commission secretary Charles Gottschalk said this election had revealed that the population is moving south in the district.

Diamondhead and North Bay West precincts outweighed the northern district precincts, Dedeaux, Crane Creek and Standard in the election by 80 votes.

"This was an unusual election," he said, "as only two or five incumbents were reelected and out of the incumbents with opponents, only one was reelected."

In the District 4 election commission race, Eugene Dillman was the winner with nearly 59 percent of the vote.

Dillman's opponent, Calvin R. Smith had 189 votes to Dillman's 265 votes.

Smith led in only one precinct, City Hall. Dillman carried West Shoreline Park, Kilm-West and South Bay.

Lenette Necaise defeated opponent Nell Koennen with more than 66 percent of the 1,753 votes cast for the school board seat.

Following the release of the unofficial tally, Necaise said she was elated about winning.

"I have loved every minute of the election which was a learning process," she said.

She said she had particularly enjoyed meeting all the people and had been surprised to find that people are concerned about the school system.

"Very seldom during the election did people only take my card," she said. "They almost always wanted to talk."

Necaise said one of her main goals was to get more people to attend the school board meetings and provide input for board members to base their decisions on.

"If the people who elected the school board members to represent them, don't voice their opinions, we can not know what they want us to do," she said.

In the run-off election less than 12 percent of the registered voters cast their ballots and in some precincts the election was particularly costly.

The Arlington precinct which had eight possible voters, recorded only one vote.

This one vote cost the county nearly $200, Gottschalk said.

In the Edwardsville precinct, the four votes cast cost the county $50 each. There were 24 possible voters.

Police car rammed from rear, one injured

By DENA BISNETTE
A Bay St. Louis Police officer was injured early Wednesday when a vehicle ran into the back of his patrol car.

Police Officer Wilbert Dorsey suffered minor injuries in the incident, according to acting Police Chief Murray Ladner. He was treated and released at Hancock General Hospital.

Ladner said that Dorsey was working at the scene of an accident at the intersection of Beach Boulevard and Highway 90 when the collision occurred.

Dorsey's police car was parked in the curb lane on the eastbound side of the highway at about 1:45 a.m. when an eastbound vehicle driven by Lexner Harris, 32, of Pass Christian, failed to change lanes or stop and ran into the rear of the police car, Ladner said.

The police car was pushed about 35 feet down the eastbound lane. Ladner said Dorsey was in the car at the time it was hit.

Harris then put her vehicle in reverse and backed it on to the highway median, he reported.

Harris was also injured and was taken to Hancock General Hospital. Community Relations Director Mary Perkins reported Wednesday that Harris, who suffered lacerations, had been admitted for observation and was in good condition.

Ladner said Harris has been charged with reckless driving and driving under the influence.

Deputy Don Coas of the Hancock County Sheriff's Department investigated the accident.

Estimates on the police car have not been completed, but Ladner said the vehicle will probably be totaled due to extensive damage to the rear end.

One of the department's unused older vehicles will be probably be placed back in service if the wrecked car can not be repaired, he said. Two people were injured in the accident that Dorsey was investigating when his car was hit.

William Russell, 21, and Robert Doney, 21, both of Pass Christian, suffered minor injuries when their vehicle ran off the eastbound lane of Hwy. 90 and landed in a ditch.

Ladner said Russell, who was driving, had swerved off the road in order to avoid an oncoming vehicle that was headed west in the east-bound lane.

Both men were treated and released at Hancock General Hospital, Perkins said.

The driver of the vehicle that had been traveling in the wrong lane was not apprehended, Ladner added.

Citizens discuss beachfront repair at Tuesday hearing

By DENA BISNETTE
A Bureau of Marine Resources official said Tuesday that Hancock Countians have so far shown the most community interest in repairing the beachfront in Hancock and Harrison counties.

Dr. Richard Leard, director of BMR, said the dozen Hancock Countians who attended the fourth in a series of BMR-sponsored hearings on beachfront repair were "the best crowd we've had show up for one of these hearings yet."

The group included members of the Hancock County Board of Supervisors and the Waveland Board of Aldermen in addition to private citizens who are residents of the beach area from Pass Christian to Clermont Harbor.

However, Leard said he feels more public input is needed and further meetings are planned, with another to be held in Hancock County sometime next month.

The hearings are part of a BMR study on the feasibility of repairing the sand beaches in both Hancock and Harrison Counties. Assisting Leard at the hearings were BMR representatives Gordon Larson and Chris Snyder and Jeff Taylor of Gulf Regional Planning Commission.

"Public comment will be one of the main driving forces behind getting this thing finished," Leard said of the study. "We expect Hancock County's problems to be different from those of Harrison County because there is less man-made beach over here."

According to Taylor, beachfront repair can be broken down into several problems, including an eroding sand berm, a deteriorated seawall, maintenance of Beach Road, drainage problems in the area and the need for development of Bayou Cadet.

The people who commented at the hearing expressed concerns ranging from funding, maintenance of the beach once it has been repaired to how the beach will be used.

Suggestions presented at the hearing included planting part of the beach to deter erosion and the possibility of using a different type of seawall structure rather than a sand beach to protect the road.

Questions also arose over control of public use of a sand beach through beach design and the placement of parking bays, responsibility for maintenance and the possibility of obtaining legislative funding for maintenance.

Taylor said he plans to take a public opinion survey through the mail to generate more interest in the beachfront repair project and more attendance at future hearings.

Board to buy buses

By DENA BISNETTE
The Hancock County School Board has decided to purchase 10 buses in an effort to upgrade the district's aging bus fleet.

At its Tuesday meeting, the board approved a proposal to advertise for bids on the buses.

Superintendent of Education Terrell Randolph said the new buses will be used to replace 10 of the district's 14 buses that are 1974 models or older.

Randolph said the continued use of the older buses has caused an increase in breakdowns and repair costs.

The district began efforts to upgrade its bus fleet about two years ago and has purchased 10 buses since then, Randolph said. The purchase of the additional buses will bring the district's total to 36 buses.

In other business, the board discussed personnel matters.

The board approved the creation of a custodial supervisor's position at Hancock North Central and employed Barney Cuevas to fill it; employed Kathy Seymour and Ann Shiyon as substitute teachers for Hancock North Central; and moved Hancock North Central cafeteria employee Myra Peterson to a food service position in the central office.

Moving Peterson brought attention to some complaints board members have received concerning whether the Hancock North Central cafeteria is adequately staffed.

District Food Services Director Rhea Scafidi reported that the cafeteria has added two more employees this year and said moving Peterson will not cause a problem at Hancock North Central.

In another personnel matter, the board approved travel requests and professional leave for Randolph, board members and two Hancock North Central faculty members who will attend upcoming conferences.

The board also set the dates for the opening of bids on a sixteenth section land timber sale and a sixteenth section mineral lease.

In addition, the board discussed but took no action on estimates for electrical repairs at Gulfview Elementary School.

New Essex Cable TV computer to offer customers advantages

Non-arrival of several pieces of essential technical equipment has forced delay in the institution of new channels to the cable system operated by Essex Cable TV in Hancock County.

Richard Richardson, divisional engineer for Essex, said Monday that every effort is being made to bring the new programs on line but supplier shipments are dragging.

"This is a very complex operation requiring the integration of new and existing frequencies and a control computer," he said.

"The computer, located in the system's Waveland office, will address—or talk—to each account, initiate turn-on and -off signals, as well as discriminate between program variations to be received at each cable customer's address," Richardson explained.

He said that once in service the operation will settle down to a "customer preferred" method of doing business but, like all new things, it takes "...a day or two to iron out the bugs."

Richardson cited a typical advantage to the new method. "For example," he said, "let us assume the Smith's or Ladner's are taking an extended vacation and decide to turn off their service while they are gone."

"Under the old operation a serviceman would physically disconnect the wires leading to the house and then reinstate service on the customer's return to town. This requires two service calls and the assessment of a reconnect charge."

"With the computer on line a customer's service can be discontinued from the office and reinstated in the same manner, all without additional charge," Richardson said.

To accomplish these tasks, the district engineer explained that each subscriber availing themselves of the new services would be given a descrambler and converter to hook to their primary outlet.

"The computer will talk to the descrambler telling it what to let through to the converter."

"Individual television sets will be left on Channel 2 with signal or program selection being made by the subscriber on the converter."

"This may sound a little confusing, but in reality it isn't too bad. To explain it another way, the descrambler just 'sits there on the television set' and the converter sits on top of it for changing channels," Richardson said.

To add channels, Essex has assembled another satellite receiving antenna adjacent to its St. Joseph Street, Waveland, office; this one just a shade smaller than the Five Meter Scientific Atlanta 'dish' already out front.

The existing antenna is trained on satellite Satcom F3. The new downlink will originate from Galaxy 1 whose signals are much stronger.

The next meeting of the chapter will be at the home of Ilyne Stewart; fellowship for the Christmas season will follow the meeting.

Mexican village aide sought by local church

Donations of clothing and canned foods are needed for distribution to residents of a Mexican village that was the site of a natural gas explosion earlier this week.

The Rev. Charles Clark, pastor of First Assembly of God in Waveland, said he plans to leave for Mexico Thursday evening to deliver the donated goods but donations will be taken until that time.

Donations may be brought to the church building on Arnold Street. Pick-up of donated items can be arranged by calling 467-7667.

DA's office to begin drug education for sixth graders

Cono Carrana of Biloxi, district attorney for Harrison, Hancock and Stone Counties, addressed the Harrison-Hancock Legal Secretaries Association Nov. 8 at Beachfront Holiday Inn, Gulfport.

When Carrana first went into office, there were 708 cases pending in Harrison County. No other district attorney's office has this large a workload except for Hinds County.

There were 1,175 cases added to the docket by way of indictments by Grand Jury, of which 206 cases are from Hancock County.

His office has disposed of 1,285 cases to date, adding up to 300 cases per lawyer in his office to prepare for trial each year, Carrana said.

Carrana says that 85 percent of crime is committed under the influence of drugs and that in December, drug education classes will be given to all students in 6th grade in Harrison, Hancock and Stone Counties, instituted by his office, and that they are presently in progress with the "Latch Key" program wherein senior citizens call the home of school-age children whose parents are working to be certain they have arrived from school.

New association members initiated by Vice President Christy Freeman are Brenda F. Alexander, Elisa Cooper, Paige Henagan and Terri Nettles.

A legal education quiz was given by Denise Faucett.

Legal directories were distributed to the membership by Linda Smith, Ways and Means chairman, for sale to the public.

Accident victims still hospitalized

Three Hancock County area residents injured last week in automobile accidents remained hospitalized Wednesday.

Thomas S. Patridge, 22, of Route One, Pass Christian, is in critical but stable condition in the intensive care unit at Garden Park Memorial Hospital, a hospital spokesman said. Patridge was transferred to Garden Park from Gulfport Memorial Hospital after suffering head injuries in a Friday night accident on Menge Avenue in Pass Christian.

Also injured in that accident were Timothy Wion, 19, and Daniel Wion, 21, of Gulfport, who were passengers in Patridge's vehicle when it struck a utility pole and overturned near the Dixie White House Nursing Home.

Also still hospitalized is eight-year-old Donna Webb, who is in Hancock General Hospital. Hospital Community Relations Director Mary Perkins said Webb was "doing fine" Wednesday.

Webb suffered a fractured shoulder and a fractured leg Saturday when she was hit by a vehicle as she attempted to cross Highway 90 in Waveland.

Hancock Chamber elects new directors

Patricia Harvill, president of the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce, reports that the ballots for the 1985 Chamber Directors have been counted.

The following five members were elected to serve three-year terms: Charles B. Benvenuti, CPA; David Compretta, Farm Bureau Insurance; Kathy Fernandez, Coast Electric Power Association; Ellen Kane, Ellen Kane Gifts; and Dick Thomas, Moore and Powell.

These five new directors will join Patricia Harvill, Riemann Funeral Home; Ellis Cuevas, Sea Coast Echo; Jeanne Garcia, Jeanne's Gifts; Joyce Lee, Hancock Bank; John Mason, Mason's Exxon; John Scafile, Favre, Genin & Scafile; Sherlyn Breland, Peoples Federal Savings & Loan; Bob Hubbard, Bob Hubbard Photography; Anthony Lolacano, Anthony's Men's Wear; Mary Perkins, Hancock General Hospital; and David Treutel, Peoples Federal Savings and Loan.

"These directors will meet Tuesday, Nov. 27, to elect officers for 1985," said Harvill.

According to the Chamber's by-laws, directors take office prior to the annual membership meeting, which is scheduled for Dec. 7 at Diamondhead Country Club.

ASSOCIATION MEETING—Hancock County Fair Association members, from left, Ethel Favre, Ethel Breaux and Larry Koennen discuss success of 1984 fair

HONORED FOR BIRTHDAY—Carl Smith's 98 birthday was celebrated by the Bay St. Louis Rotary Club Wednesday. Smith a longtime member of the Rotary and resident of Bay St. Louis was born Nov. 26, 1886 in a sod hut constructed by his father on a Kansas homestead. He first came to Mississippi during World War I at Camp Shelby. He still drives to Rotary's meeting every week.

1985 Hancock County fair scheduled earlier

By BRENDA HEATHCOCK

The Hancock County Fair Association reported Monday that the 1985 county fair is scheduled for late August instead of November.

Association president Larry Koennen said the change is planned to try and improve participation and attendance at the fair.

This year's fair went real smooth and was one of the best fairs in years, he added.

A tentative schedule for next year includes a talent show, beauty contest, livestock show, horse show, with one event planned for each night of the fair.

The association also agreed to move the livestock judging back to Thursday night. Winners will be able to pick up their prize money the following morning.

Upon a recommendation by Hancock County Home Economist Darlene Underwood, the association decided to change the time exhibitors can get their goods.

This past year exhibits were scheduled to be picked up from 9 a.m. to 12 noon Sunday. The new time to pick up exhibits will be announced later.

Following a brief discussion on the possibility of charging admission to the fair, Hancock County Agent Lee Taylor made a motion the idea be tabled until the attendance was higher.

The motion was seconded and approved by the association.

Once again we have been granted special permission by Santa Claus to publish letters to him from young boys and girls in the area.

Santa is now preparing the lists of toys for boys and girls and would like to hear from them.

So, if you would like to let Santa know what you would like for Christmas, just send a letter to Santa Claus, c/o The Sea Coast Echo, P.O. Box 230, Bay St. Louis, MS 39520.

We hope Santa will grant the wishes of all boys and girls.

It looks like our summer temperatures have finally left with the cool snap which arrived Wednesday morning.

We have noted how the leaves on many trees are still green. Pecan trees are finally beginning to shed their leaves that should have fallen long ago.

Weather and its many changes causes a lot of conversation, and it is controlled by nature over which we have no control.

We hope everyone has a nice Thanksgiving holiday.

Many will be giving parties or attending them and possibly having a few drinks.

We urge each of you to please let someone who is not drinking do the driving.

There are far too many persons killed and injured during the Thanksgiving weekend each year. As you know, many of the accidents involve someone who has been drinking.

Enjoy yourself, but have a safe holiday.

We are glad so many of our area residents attended The Boys Town Choir's performance at the Gulf Coast Coliseum on Tuesday night.

The concert was very good, and we understand John Mason was outstanding in his performance.

Highway Patrol hopes to reduce 1983 toll

Speeders and drunken drivers will be of special interest to the Mississippi Highway Patrol during the four-day Thanksgiving period since drivers in these categories caused most of the 12 highway deaths over Thanksgiving last year.

"More and more frequently, speeders and drunken drivers who cause innocent people to die in automobile crashes are being charged with manslaughter," Col. George Saxon, patrol chief, said.

"Our enforcement efforts are centered around ticketing law breakers to deter highway crashes. We feel that the cost of a citation is preferable to a driver being indicted for manslaughter or negligent homicide because he or she was responsible for killing an innocent motorist or pedestrian," the chief said.

The patrol has stepped up its enforcement during the 102-hour period that began at 6 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 21 and will end midnight Sunday, Nov. 25.

Saxon said more than the usual number of troopers will be on duty during the holiday period because all days off and leaves of absence have been canceled.

"In some areas of the state we will use air surveillance to assist ground units in detecting violators, Saxon said.

Consumer report

Attorney General Ed Pittman announced today that his Consumer Protection Division saved or recovered $81,413.73 for Mississippi consumers during the month of October, bringing the Division's dollar recovery figures for the first ten months of the year to $718,580.04.

So far in 1984, the Division has received 1,543 new consumer complaints and completed action on 1,353. Currently, the Division has approximately 350 pending consumer complaints either being mediated or investigated and one (1) lawsuit pending in court. The Division has been able to be of some assistance to 87.69 percent of the consumers involved in complaints completed.

For the first ten months of the year, the top ten areas Mississippians have complained about are: Used Car Sales & Service, New Car Sales & Service, Mail Ordered Merchandise (failure to deliver), Motor Vehicle Repairs, Real Estate Contract Terms, Motor Vehicle Parts & Accessories, Credit Collection Practices, Appliances, Home Improvement & Repairs and Contractors.

Mississippians who think they may have been deceived or defrauded in connection with the advertisement or sale of services should write to Attorney General Ed Pittman, Consumer Protection Division, Post Office Box 220, Jackson, MS 39205.

News From The Governor's Office

Gov. Bill Allain

One of the priorities of my administration, as you probably know, is economic development. I believe we must provide better jobs and more of them for our citizens. In addition, we must insure that our citizens are educated and trained for those jobs.

Our Department of Economic Development and Department of Education are working on programs to assist Mississippians in finding better-paying jobs in the future.

The focus of our economic development is on industries that will insure that our people get a fair wage for a day of work.

The day of cheap labor in Mississippi must be over, just as it has ended in our neighboring states.

We want industry to bring in the high-paying, management-level jobs that will improve the standard of living for our state.

This week I received a copy of a report from the Mississippi Research and Development Center that points out the problem that we have been discussing.

On par with workers throughout the nation, Mississippians earn less on the average. The R&D Center studied this wage gap and found that in 1983, Mississippians earned 83 percent of the average wage earned in other states. That means on an hourly basis that we earn $7.19 per hour while the average for the rest of the nation is $8.16 per hour.

Not only is this a sad situation and hard on our people; it is also a continuing trend. However, the numbers have gotten better. In 1950, Mississippians earned only 67 percent of the average wage of most U.S. workers; by 1980 we were earning 75 percent of the average wage.

The R&D Center said our problem is due to several factors. First, we have more people working in low-wage jobs such as service workers, clerical workers, farmers and laborers, instead of high-wage jobs like professionals, managers and craftsmen.

We also have fewer union members and union workers traditionally make higher wages than non-union members.

Other factors that affect the wage levels include: Single persons make lower wages than married persons; nonwhites and women make lower wages than white males; and city dwellers make higher wages than rural residents.

Probably the area where Mississippi is hurt the greatest is in the area of education. Education and work experience are identified as important factors to wages.

In 1983, Mississippians had 13.7 grades of education completed on the average, compared to a national average of 13.84 grades for other states.

While our work experience tends to be higher than the national average, the R&D Center said you lose more in wages from one year less of education than you do from one year less of work experience.

All this works together for what we in state government have been preaching; We must get Mississippi's education level up to get our economy in better shape and to get our people up the scale on annual income.

We have made a good beginning with the Education Reform Act of 1982 and I believe the results of this program will be reflected in our work force in the very near future.

But we must continue the work we have begun. We must strive to help every Mississippian prepare for a job that pays a good, fair wage.

CHOKING: WHAT TO DO IN AN EMERGENCY

Last night at dinner, my husband choked on a piece of meat. He coughed it up and was okay, but I would like to know what to do if that should happen again.

Choking, a major cause of accidental death in this country, occurs when food or some other foreign object blocks the windpipe or air passages to the lungs. Large, poorly chewed pieces of food can cause choking. In adults, the food is usually meat; in children, it may be food or any object small enough to fit in the mouth.

If you see someone choking, ask the person to try to speak. Any sound, even strangled choking noises or hoarse coughing, means the airway is only partially blocked. In this case, don't interfere. Coughing is the body's natural defense against choking, and it may clear away whatever is blocking the windpipe.

However, if you see any evidence of difficulty in breathing and the person is unable to make any sounds, the airway is totally blocked and no oxygen is reaching the lungs.

In this case, you must act immediately. Every second counts. A person cannot live without oxygen for more than four to six minutes. If time allows, call your fire department rescue squad, but don't stand around waiting for them to come. If you have been unable to dislodge the object from the person's throat by the time the fire department arrives, its trained personnel can take over.

Meanwhile, you can help. Several firm blows to the back of a choking person is often effective in clearing an obstructed airway. If this does not work, the next step should be the Heimlich maneuver. Developed by Dr. Henry Heimlich, this maneuver is recognized by many in the health care field today as an effective way to assist a choking person.

Stand behind the person and use both hands to press a closed fist into the abdomen, slightly below the lower end of the breast bone, thumb side against the abdomen. An inward and upward thrust forces a flow of air from the lung, which in turn expels the object from the airway. You may find it necessary to repeat the Heimlich maneuver

Society urges regular eye exams

If you have diabetes, you should have regular eye checkups, according to the National Society to Prevent Blindness - Mississippi Affiliate. The Society warns that the disease can lead to diabetic retinopathy—a major cause of vision impairment and blindness.

"Diabetic retinopathy is the leading cause of all new cases of blindness among Americans 20 through 74 years old," says Dr. John Ford, medical advisor of the Mississippi Affiliate. "It is one of several circulatory complications that often affect people who have had diabetes for several years."

Careful control of diabetes and early diagnosis and treatment of retinopathy improves the potential for saving sight, the Society reports. However, if diabetic retinopathy is diagnosed, photocoagulation can be used to arrest the disorder's progress. In this procedure, a strong beam of laser light is used to seal off blood vessels affected by the retinopathy and to stop the growth of abnormal blood vessels.

"If you are diabetic and haven't had your eyes checked recently, this November, which is National Diabetes Month, may be the time to make that commitment to yourself," Dr. Ford adds.

To better acquaint people with the causes, symptoms and treatments of diabetic retinopathy, the Society has published a pamphlet which is available free for single copy requests. Send a self-addressed, stamped, business-sized envelope to: National Society to Prevent Blindness, Mississippi Affiliate, 115 Broadmoor Drive, Jackson, Ms.

Founded in 1908, the Society is the oldest voluntary health agency nationally engaged in preventing blindness through a comprehensive program of community services, public and professional education and research.

several times before you are successful.

If the person is seated, kneel behind his chair and reach around the back of the chair to perform this maneuver. If the person has fallen unconscious to the floor, place him on his back, face upward and then kneel astride his thighs, facing him. Place one hand on top of the other with the heel of your bottom hand slightly above the navel and below the rib cage. Press inward and upward on the abdomen with a quick thrust as many times as is necessary to dislodge the object.

This latter method should also be used if you cannot reach around the victim's waist.

If you are alone and are choking, you can place a fist on your abdomen, grasp it with the other hand and press into your abdomen with a series of thrusts until you have expelled the object.

The Heimlich maneuver should never be practiced on a nonchoking person because of the potential for damage to the ribs and underlying organs.

There are several simple ways to reduce your risks of choking. Cut your food into small pieces and chew slowly and thoroughly. Avoid laughing and talking while chewing and swallowing foods. This is especially important to teach children who tend to be active at the dinner table.

Avoid excessive intake of alcohol before and during meals. Don't let children run and play with food, candy or other small objects in their mouths. And keep small objects out of the reach of small children and infants.

Christmas comedy to open

Minacappelli's Dinner Theatre reports its upcoming production of "My Three Angels" opens Friday for a limited run at the Slidell establishment.

"My Three Angels," which opened on Broadway in 1953 and had a two year run, tells the story of three convicts on Devils Island who "adopt" a troubled family on Christmas Eve, and hilariously solve all their troubles.

Portraying Joseph, the leader of the convicts/angels is WDSU-TV anchorman Bob Krieger, currently playing at Minacappelli's in "Cactus Flower."

Joseph, a con man and swindler, devises outlandish devious schemes to save the embattled Ducotel family from ruin, while Jules and Albert, the other convicts, both murderers, prefer more simple, direct methods.

Making his Minacappelli's debut as Jules, the gentle murderer is Bob Thorne, a local attorney and former Slidell City Council member.

Another Minacappelli newcomer, Kerry Cotter plays the role of Albert, the third "angel" with the peculiar pet.

Cotter recently appeared in "A Fool For Love" at CAC to high critical acclaim.

As the target of the "angels" concern, the embattled Ducotel family, newcomer Howard Mobley portrays the gentle, bumbling Felix, a lovable but ineffective merchant, while Carolyn Krieger returns to the Minacappelli stage as Felix's long-suffering wife.

Newcomer Corinne Cleary plays the lovesick daughter, Marie Louise. The villains of the piece are evil Uncle Henri and his greedy nephew Paul, played by veterans Bob Gault and Mitch Landry, respectively.

The production is under the direction of Michael Bennett, while the stage manager is Brett Gault.

"My Three Angels" opens with a champagne party on Friday with performances on Friday and Saturday at 8:15, preceded by a 6:45 p.m. buffet with a special matinee on Sunday at 2:15 p.m., preceded by a 12:45 p.m. buffet.

For reservations call 504-888-7000 (New Orleans) or 504-643-9671 (Slidell).

Charles Richards, event chairman. The crafts co-chairmen, Mrs. Mark Uram of Bay St. Louis and Mrs. R. Terry Markel of Waveland, have coordinated groups of parents making items from Christmas wreaths to handcrafted children's toys.

Mrs. Richards feels the boutique will provide many holiday shopping solutions for people up and down the coast as well as New Orleans who annually come to gather around the tea table.

The decorating committee—Mrs. Robin Overstreet, Mrs. John Roper and Mrs. Gary Twedt, all from Ocean Springs—is planning to decorate the Richards' home in traditional Williamsburg Christmas finery.

The cooking expertise of Mrs. Earl Sellier Jr. of Pass Christian has inspired others to help fill freezers with home-prepared items to be offered for sale.

The Book Boat of Pass Christian will bring books selected by the owner, Mrs. A.W. Cooper, a cross section ranging from best sellers to classics for children as well as adults.

NOTICE OF BOND SALE

Sealed proposals will be received by the Board of Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Waveland, Mississippi, at their usual meeting place in the City Hall in Waveland, Mississippi, until the hour of 7:30 o'clock P.M. on December 4, 1984, for the sale, at not less than par and accrued interest, of Urban Renewal Revenue Bonds (Waveland Associates, Ltd. Project) of the City of Waveland, Mississippi, in the aggregate principal amount to be no less than $2 Million and no greater than $3 Million (the "Bonds").
Each proposal shall be accompanied by a Bond Purchase Agreement in substantially the form attached to the bid or bids. The Bonds will be dated, will be payable, and will be subject to prepayment in accordance with the provisions of such bond purchase agreement. The final amount of the Bonds will be set by the City and any bond purchase agreement must contemplate that the Bonds may be in any amount from $2 Million to $2.5 Million. The Bonds shall be a limited obligation of the City of Waveland, the principal of which shall be payable solely and only from any revenues derived by the City from the following:
(a) All right, title and interest in, to and under a Loan Agreement between the City and Waveland Associates, Ltd., a Mississippi limited partnership;
(b) All right, title and interest of the City in, to and under a Promissory Note executed by the person or persons designated pursuant to the aforesaid Loan Agreement;
(c) All right, title and interest of the City in, to and under a Deed of Trust creating a lien in favor of the City upon certain real property to be acquired and improved with the proceeds of the Bonds securing the indebtedness by the City from the aforesaid Promissory Note; and
(d) Such other collateral, if any, as may be specified in the aforesaid Bond Purchase Agreement.
The City will irrevocably pledge and assign the foregoing sources of revenue, without recourse, for the benefit of the holder or holders of the Bonds. The Bonds shall not constitute an indebtedness of the City within the meaning of any constitutional provision or statutory limitation, and shall never constitute nor give rise to a pecuniary liability of the City or a charge against the general credit or taxing powers of the City. The City shall not be obligated to pay the Bonds and the interest thereon, except from any revenues derived by the City from the aforesaid sources of revenue, including any proceeds from foreclosure of the aforesaid Deed of Trust.
Proposals should be addressed to the City Clerk, should be plainly marked "Proposal for Bonds, (Waveland Associates, Ltd. Project)", and should be filed with the City Clerk on or before the date and hour hereinabove named. The council reserves the right to reject any and all bids submitted. The Bonds shall not bear an interest rate greater than thirteen percent (13%) per annum.
In the opinion of counsel, interest on the bonds will be exempt from federal and State of Mississippi income taxation under existing statutes as presently interpreted.

TIGHT NERVES
This materialistic age is often blamed for all our frustrated ambitions and nervous tension. When the person becomes tense and overwhelmed with anxiety, he is urged to take tranquilizers or rest from work. But it is a hard and poor remedy to follow when you are tied up inside. Authorities in our field have found that nervousness creeps up on a person from the inside, and they usually blame outside conditions for causing them to be tense and over depressed. Studies indicate that there is a physical reason for nervousness, that it can and often does result from an interrupted nerve supply. This irritates the nervous system and slows down the life currents of the body. A Chiropractic examination can detect an interruption in the nerve supply and proper care will aid in restoring normal nerve function, your peace of mind, and vigorous health again.

Hancock libraries list 'bestsellers'

The Hancock County Library System reports 'And Ladies of The Club' was the book most requested by users of the Kiln, Waveland, and Bay St. Louis libraries during October.

Written by Helen Hoover Santmeyer, the book chronicles life in an Ohio town from 1868 to 1932.

Santmeyer's work has been on the New York Times Bestseller List for 22 weeks and is in the number six spot this week.

'Crescent City' by Belva Plains has been the second most requested title by county residents. Published by Delacorte, it is number nine on the 'list' and is the story of life in 19th Century New Orleans seen from the viewpoint of a Jewish woman. The work has been a bestseller for nine weeks.

Other favorites of county residents for October were 'Strong Medicine,' 'Fourth Protocol,' and 'Lincoln: A Novel.'

In 'Strong Medicine,' Arthur Hailey writes of a strong woman who rises in the pharmaceutical industry.

This book is number three on the NYTBL.

'Fourth Protocol' by Frederick Forsyth, number four bestseller in the nation, concerns a London jewel robbery which leads to plots and counterplots behind the Iron Curtain.

A fictionalized account of the Civil War presidency of Abraham Lincoln is the subject of Gore Vidal's 'Lincoln: A Novel.' It has been on the NYTBL for 22 weeks and now holds the 11th spot.

The library staff predicts that four books will be much-requested by Hancock Countians in November: 'The Talisman' by Stephen King and

Peter Straub; 'Love and War' by John Jakes; 'God Knows' by Joseph Heller; and 'Stillwatch' by Mary

Higgins Clark. Persons desiring to be put on the reserve list for these or other bestsellers should call the library in Bay St. Louis, 467-5282; Kiln, 255-1724; or Waveland, 467-9240.

Point of Law

Q: Within the next few weeks, we will sell our house and buy another, which we'll rent to the present owners for six months while they wait for their new house to be completed. In the meantime, we will rent another place to live in. Can we deduct depreciation and operating expenses on our new house while we rent it out? If we do, will we lose the right to defer the capital-gain tax from the sale of our old house?

A: You can write off depreciation and maintenance costs for the period of time your new house is rented. Since you're buying that house as a principal residence, you can defer the tax on the gain from selling your old house provided you move in within two years from the date you sell the house you now own.

Q: Can I set up an Individual Retirement Account based on the income I receive as the beneficiary of my husband's pension?

A: No. Only the income you receive as compensation from employment—not what you get from a pension—qualifies you to establish an IRA. Your maximum contribution: $2,000 a year.

Rocks downed in Wendell Ladner Bowl by Pearl River Blue Devils

By Tom Ackerman

Making their first appearance ever in the Wendell Ladner Bowl last Saturday at Hancock North Central stadium in Kiln, the St. Stanislaus Rock-a-Chaws almost pulled off the comeback of the season, but the Pearl River Central Blue Devils held fast and repelled their opponents 20-14 for the title.

During the first half of play, the Devils completely dominated play taking a 13-0 advantage over the Rocks in the lockers. But SSC, determined to make a game of it, added two TD's of their own on runs by Rock Chuck Yarbrough; and almost tied the game with less than two minutes on the clock. Working against a 20-14 lead by the Blue Devils, the Rock-a-Chaws moved the ball to within seven yards of the score. Rock quarterback Matt Scardino attempted the score on a keeper, but was brought down less than three yards from the end zone to end SSC's chances for pulling out a tie and a possible win.

Early in the first half, the Blue Devils powered their way to the first score on five first downs, all earned on the ground. Moving from their own 35 on kickoff, Pearl River worked their way to the Rock 7 on eight plays, all runs. With 8:49 left in the first quarter, the Devils overpowered the Rock defense and took an early lead, 6-0. The point after was good, and Stanislaus was down 7-0.

Late in the same period, the Blue Devils intercepted at the Rock 36 and began what proved to be a short trek toward another score. Moving to the 5 in six plays, the Devils powered through again to up the score to 12-0. The only bright spot for the Rocks at the time was a failed PAT blocked by Rock Arthur Wynne, leaving open the possibility for a comeback—providing Stanislaus could get the TD's and Matt Spotorno would have a chance to make the extra points.

The Rocks failed to start their move up the comeback trail in the second quarter, but they also managed to contain the Devils. The Rock-a-Chaws repelled a Pearl River score attempt in the middle of the period, forcing a fumble in the end zone—recovered by Rock Todd Thriffley—and the Rocks took over on the 20.

Holding the Devils to one more play in the period, Rock Jimmy Dempsey intercepted at the SSC 5. The Rock-a-Chaws were unable to capitalize on the advantage, but they managed to keep possession for the remainder of the half.

Stanislaus received to start the second half, but a brief shower seemed to dampen their momentum momentarily, and Pearl River took over on the SSC 26 on another drive to the goal line. On three first downs, with less than 8 minutes left in the third period, the blue Devils upped the score to 20-0 with another TD and extra point.

For the next five minutes of the game, the Rocks began their long trek toward their first score. Moving to their own 36 on the kickoff, the Rock-a-Chaws carried to the 49 on runs by QB Scardino and running back Thriffley.

Then on first down, Scardino completed a pass to Rock David Zanca who twisted and turned his way to the Devils' 25 for another first. Two plays later, Scardino was almost sacked, but he managed to get a pass away to Arthur Wynne who scurried to the 8. From there Yarbrough took it across for the score. Matt Spotorno's point-after kick was on target as usual, and the Rocks were almost back in the ball game, 20-7.

The Rocks' graveyard defense held the Devils for the rest of the game, starting off with an extra-effort tackle by Rock Blake Boudreaux who kept Pearl River from getting through on the kickoff. Allowing the Devils two series, the Rock defense still prevented another score, and took over on their own 23 to begin another drive toward the end zone.

Moving to the 37 on five plays and another first down, Scardino connected on a long pass with Thriffley who ran the yardage to the Devil 9. Yarbrough carried to the 3, and then repeated the effort from there for the second Rock score with 8 minutes left in the fourth quarter. Spotorno made the score 20-14.

During that last eight minutes, the Rocks began the road toward what might have been. Holding the Devils to one possession, the Rocks took over on the Pearl River 33.

On third down, Chuck Yarbrough, named the Most Valuable Player for St. Stanislaus in the Bowl, took a pass from Scardino at the 23 and ran to the 8 for another down and a chance at a tie score.

On second down of the series, Scardino made it to the 7 on a keeper. Next play, he was sacked with no gain. And on fourth down, goal to go, Scardino was stopped three yards short by the blue Devil defense to dash the Rocks' hope for a comeback win. With only 1:51 left in the game, the Devils kept the ball on the ground and retained possession for the victory.

The Rocks finished their season with a 6-4 record, their best in recent years, and their first appearance in the Wendell Ladner Bowl.

VALUABLE YARDAGE—St. Stanislaus Rock running back Mark Logan (44) evades Pearl River Central Blue Devil Ted Strain (13) and picks up valuable yardage Saturday night in the 10th annual Wendell Ladner Bowl at Hancock North Central High School. St. Stanislaus lost to Pearl River Central, 20-14. (Echo sports photo by John Falcon)

OUTSTANDING DEFENSIVE BACK—Pirate split end Mark Boyd (5) intercepts a St. John Eagle pass early in the third quarter of Saturday's first annual Gridiron Bowl to set up the Pirates' first touchdown. Boyd was voted the outstanding defensive back for the Pirates in their 20-6 victory over the Eagles. (Echo Sports photo by Edgar Perez)

Junior Pass players honored

The Deep South Junior High School Conference recently selected nine Pass Christian players for honors.

Byron Peterson was named most valuable offensive lineman in the conference and Donald Vince was named most valuable defensive back.

Vincent Cuevas, Paul Avery, Bernard Burton, Casey Hoda, Peterson and Vince were named All-Conference.

Brian Meyers, Jim Eastridge and Earl Brown were selected for honorable mention.

Methodists celebrate bicentennial

BICENTENNIAL OF AMERICAN METHODISM Article XI

By Katrina O. McDonald

The writer plans in the last two articles of this series to give some information on the other Methodist churches in Hancock County, and also on Gulfside Assembly, an institution of the United Methodist Church.

LOGTOWN METHODIST

Records of the Mississippi Conference Historical Society show the Logtown Methodist Church beginning in 1880.

About 1875, Mr. Henry Weston, prominent pioneer lumberman of the community, situated on the banks of the Pearl River, realized they should have a church.

He was instrumental in bringing to Logtown the Rev. Inman W. Cooper who although only 20 years of age had already shown promise in his chosen field.

After faithful service in churches of the conference, in later years Dr. Cooper was president of Whitworth College for Girls in Brookhaven.

After the loss of his first wife he married Miss Janie Drake, a member of a well-known family in Hancock County who were originally from Church Hill, Miss.

The first church in Logtown was built by Mr. Weston and the H. Weston Lumber Co. on land given by the family of Mr. Henry Carre' of New Orleans.

The church was first known as Cooper's Chapel in honor of its first pastor who organized it.

When the saw mills were in full production, Logtown had a population of nearly 2,000.

Mr. J.S. Otis was superintendent of the Sunday School for 43 years and Mr. Dave Weston for 20 years.

In all, 42 ministers served this church from 1880 to 1963, when NASA took over the area.

Coming in their younger years, often for only two year's service, many rose to positions of great responsibility in the Mississippi Conference, looking back with pleasure and gratitude for their time in Logtown.

WAVELAND UNITED METHODIST

Many years ago a small group of Methodist people began to meet in the Waveland area. Because of small numbers, they were unable to continue as a church. The property was sold for taxes and was purchased by a Mr. Holderith who held it for many years.

Around 1950, new interest developed and once more a small group began to work for their own church. The Rev. Tom Prewitt, district superintendent at that time, gave much assistance.

The Rev. Cude Rousseau who had retired from the Louisiana Conference of the Methodist Church and with his wife (nee' Pearl Weston) had moved to Waveland and he served as the first minister.

The congregation met in the hallway of the Rousseau home in the beginning, but shortly afterward Mr. Holderith gave the property back to them and they began to function as a church.

Mrs. Ruth Meilleur is the only living charter member of this group. They feel the road has been difficult but rewarding. They have always had a connection with other churches in the area—Pearlington, Clermont Harbor and now with Main Street United Methodist Church of Bay St. Louis.

The church now has a membership of about 100 with an average attendance of 60.

A number of families from the Logtown church which was dissolved in 1963 with the coming of NASA added numbers and assets, and as Waveland grew, other new families were added.

The first structure was a small building 12 feet by 20 feet which serves now as the educational area since other additions have been made.

In the early 1960's a sanctuary was built which included office and kitchen facilities.

The sanctuary was remodeled in recent years and in 1963 a steeple was added.

Chancel furniture was given by Mrs. Selma George in memory of her husband, Maurice.

The kitchen area was completely renovated within the past year.

Waveland Church now enjoys a beautiful and adequate structure in which to serve God.

CLERMONT HARBOR UMC
Clermont Harbor is celebrating its 40th anniversary this year. Early in 1944 a survey discovered 35 Protestant families in the community with no Protestant church.

Representatives of these families met at the home of Mrs. Eva Ladner in late winter for a preaching service by Rev. Eual Samples of Main Street Methodist Church.

Soon the Clermont Harbor-Lakeshore charge was formed, and at the next annual conference Dr. T. Restin Heath of Kiln, a retired minister from the Kansas conference, was named pastor.

Pioneering services on Sunday (7:30 p.m. "rain or no rain," began with meetings in different homes.

At the first service $6 was set aside toward a new sanctuary. With great enthusiasm, they broke ground in 1946 on a donated site.

Help came from many neighboring churches, and an organ, a piano, cash, pews were given as well as blueprints and wiring without charge.

Plans were made for an early dedication but the 1947 hurricane, although inflicting only minor damage to the church building, was devastating to the homes of many members, and their plans were disrupted.

The dedication came on March 20, 1948, with a capacity crowd and a stirring service.

One account read "All went home thanking God for a beautiful little church, dedicated to the glory of God and the service of man."

THIS AD HAS ALREADY SAVED YOU MONEY.

If you paid for this newspaper, we have something in common. We paid for it, too.

In fact, every advertiser you see in these pages paid handsomely for the privilege of being here. And what we paid went toward the cost of producing the newspaper. Which made it a lot cheaper for you to buy.

How much cheaper? Well, if you took all the advertising away, the average newspaper would cost you about five times as much.

And offer you about half as much.

After all, advertising informs you about new products. It helps you make smarter decisions about what to buy. Often it enlightens you. Sometimes it entertains you.

And yes, occasionally it annoys you. But if it does, you can take advantage of one of advertising's nicest features.

You can simply ignore it.

It might hurt our feelings. But we'll still chip in for your newspaper.

ADVERTISING IS ANOTHER WORD FOR INVESTMENT.

Stanislaus students involved in Millsaps economic program

Students at St. Stanislaus High School have been selected to participate in a business game hosted by the Center for Economic Education of the School of Management at Millsaps College in Jackson.

The Millsaps Interscholastic Business Simulation Competition is the only one of its kind in Mississippi.

This competition, sponsored by the American Enterprise Center, involves ten Mississippi high schools. These are divided into two 'industry' groupings of five schools each so that schools of similar sizes are competing against one another.

The first such competition was held last spring.

Members of the St. Stanislaus High School team are Paul Cassidy, Billy Cox, Charles Schutt, Mark Wheeler and Mike Wyatt. Alternates are Nathan Bills and Peter Watts. Mr. James C. Thriffley III is the faculty sponsor for the group.

The students are representing the management of a business firm and are making such decisions as how many units to produce at what price, how much to spend on advertising, and whether to invest in additional plant and equipment.

The decisions made are being fed into the Millsaps computer which analyzes them along with the decisions of other high school teams competing against them. The computer determines from these decisions the number of units sold, costs of selling them and other outcomes.

The financial statements and other measurements of performance are calculated by the computer in order for each school to know how it performed relative to the other. Each team uses this feedback to make its next set of decisions.

The St. Stanislaus High School team will be involved in the game which will last until January when the students will travel to the Millsaps campus in Jackson for the final decision on Friday, Jan. 18.

Hancock GED students successful

The Hancock County Adult Education Program this year has enrolled 115 students.

The following students recently passed the GED test:

John Baughman, Gulfview Center; Anita Garcia, and Shirley Verdin, both of the Pearllington Center; Steve Shaw, and Michael Mixon, both of the Hancock North Central Center; David Bremer, Rose Lewis, Michael Lee, Carmel Marziale, and Ferdinand Marziale, all of the Bay St. Louis Center.

Adult Education classes are offered two nights weekly at 6 p.m. at the following locations: Gulfview Elementary School, Lakeshore, Monday and Tuesday; Charles B. Murphy Elementary School, Pearlington, Tuesday and Thursday; Hancock County City Library, Bay St. Louis, Monday and Wednesday; and Hancock North Central School, Kiln, Tuesday and Thursday.

Anyone interested in furthering his or her education through the Adult Education Program should contact Philip Terrell, Adult Education supervisor, at 533-7872, or report to class at one of the above locations.

TROPHY WINNER—Four-year-old Jolinda Gentry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard J. Gentry of Waveland, measures her height against the first alternate trophy she recently received in the Tiny Miss Division of the Cover Girl U.S.A. competition in Biloxi.

At this time, the students will make a presentation to a panel of business leaders from the American Enterprise Center about their decision strategy and will be honored with an awards banquet.
